

It is clear that an independent ISP provider should be insured reasonable access to any telephone companies distribution system and also afforded competitive protections to do so. And as such I ask that you do this re: the above mentioned petition which would make independent ISP's extremely vulnerable to competitively doing business and would potentially create a unfair market condition in favor of the major phone companies. Thank you, Wally Mcconnell